Daytona Beach Florida Revs Up For Hypnosis Week! Hypno-Expo '10 May 26th – 31st, 2010.

Forty two Globally Prominent Educators will speak at the International Medical Dental and Hypnotherapy Association, Hypnosis Conference. The Complementary Healthcare Extravaganza is set to commence over Memorial Day weekend at the Daytona Beach Hilton Hotel from May 26th-31st, 2010.

From around the world a diverse and highly innovative group of educators, scientists, trainers, coaches and practitioners will converge during Hypno-Expo '10. The Registration Fee of $319 includes: 48 free lectures, 3 shopping days in the Exhibitor Hall, Friday evening Social and Concert Performance, Saturday evening Awards Dinner, Live Entertainment and Fireworks off the pier.

This year's event highlights lectures, workshops and courses from every aspect of the educational spectrum; collectively offering nearly 100 choices in hypnosis, hypnotherapy, NLP, scientific research, business practices, legal issues and marketing strategies for hypnotists, hypnotherapists and complementary healthcare professionals.

A complete conference catalog and registration information can be viewed or downloaded at www.imdha.com or www.iact.org. Call 570.869.1021 to request a catalog. Early reservations by April 23rd are recommended to secure the lowest rates available. Educational presentations qualify for continuing education credits for members of the International Medical and Dental Hypnotherapy Association and the International Association of Counselors and Therapists.

The expert faculty plan to speak on subjects that include adult education, alcoholism, anchoring, birthing, body language, clinical interviews, coaching, codependency, infertility, marketing, medical hypnosis, sexuality, smoking, spirituality, sports and practice building.

International educators from Canada, Taiwan, United States and United Kingdom round out the eclectic and diverse faculty of speakers. Internationally acclaimed hypnotist Debbie Papadakis and four best-selling authors are participating in the event. Dennis Chong, MD author of "Knife Without Pain", Paul G. Durbin, PhD author of "Kissing Frogs", "Human Trinity Hypnotherapy" and "Hypnotherapy for Body, Mind and Spirit", C. Roy Hunter, author of "The Art of Hypnosis", "The Art of Hypnotherapy" and "Hypnosis For Inner Conflict Resolution", and Dr. Kweethai Neill author of "Hypnotherapy, An Alternative Path to Health and Happiness". Be sure to check the conference schedule for their listing of lectures, courses and workshops.

Forty two Globally Prominent Educators will speak at the International Medical Dental and Hypnotherapy Association, Hypnosis Conference set to commence over Memorial Day weekend at the Daytona Beach Hilton Hotel from May 26th-31st, 2010. Among our group of accomplished speakers, we are especially excited to welcome back the highly sought after teacher, hypnotist and founder of Toronto's Hypno Healing Institute, Debbie Papadakis.
